

I oppose the change to relax and allow more inappropriate language and nudity under the FCC's current standard.

There are enough pay per view options for the public to access without changing the current limits.

This change is NOT necessary.

Julia Redford